Program Title	Communication English and Cultural Exchange Program
Total Duration (in days)	12
Target group	Undergraduates
Number of participants	30

UniKL MFI has meticulously crafted Communication English and Cultural Exchange programme to engage international undergraduates with various strategies, techniques and skills for them to communicate effectively in English. UniKL MFI is an established academic institute that emphasizes technology as an integral part of the learning process where it provides individualized instruction focusing on intellectual, physical and character development within a safe, nurturing and diverse learning environment. The program includes opportunities for participants to be exposed to the various approaches and strategies to learn English, explore the uniqueness of Malaysia from educational visits to cultural attractions as well as to give the participants' bud taste a treat with typical local dish which are sumptuous and usually very different from what they are used to.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of the programme, participants will be able to:

- gain more English vocabulary according to specific setting
- communicate and write in English with proper pronunciation and tone
- learn more on Malaysia's heritage and cultures from visits attended
- build good rapport with Malaysians

METHODOLOGY

- Interactive classes with English language activities
- Communication practices by visiting interesting places according to the module
